

EVENTS THIS WEEK

NOV 2
VIDHI SINGHANIA
COLLECTION TRUNK
SHOW

Mrunal's Boutique

An exclusive showcase of Vidhi Singhania's collection of embroidered, handloom Kota and Banarasi saris. Best known for her hand-spun creations, the designer has endeavoured to revive and keep the traditional art of weaving alive and turn Kota into an avant-garde style statement.
soam-8pm

TILL NOV 6
FROM OURTUBA TO CORDOBA
PHOTOGRAPHY
EXHIBITION
Bait al Nahdah, Bait al
Zubair

This group exhibition by Spanish photographers is part of the Spanish Cultural Week which started earlier in the week.
Sunday-Thursday, 9am-5.30pm

NOV 2, 3

ISRAELI MOVIE NIGHTS

02

THURSDAY

10.00am

Handwoven Collections

There is a treat for fashionistas in Oman as Vidhi Singhania's exclusive collection of saris, butwas, and unstitched blouses will be showcased. Mrunali's Boutique
+968 2456 7599

4.00pm

Good Day Golfing

Enjoy some chilled family time at the NBO Golf Classic Public Village with some fun music, free golf lessons for children, and entertainment activities while 45 world ranked professionals participate in the grand final
Al Mouj Golf
+968 9139 8727;
+968 2477 8431

Mrunal's Boutique to unveil Vidhi Singhania's designs

For all the fashionistas of Oman, Mrunal's Boutique, the vanguard for women's clothing and accessories has announced the exclusive showcase of Vidhi Singhania's collection of embroidered and handloom Kota and Banarasi saris.

Reinforcing her passion to bring the finest names on the international fashion scene to Muscat, Mrunal Khimji, designer and owner of Mrunal's Boutique said, "Our motto has always been to collaborate with the best fashion houses and designers from around the world, to bring home the latest trending fashion that matches the expectation of our patrons.

"Vidhi's design epitomises the perfect blend of tradition and contemporary fashion. We are thrilled to display her exquisite handwoven collections right here in Muscat."

From Banaras silk sarees and traditional and classic Kotas to a wide variety of batuas and blouses, Vidhi, the daughter of Mahendra and Manju Sanghi and wife of Nidhipati Singhania is best known for her beautiful hand-spun creations.

She has endeavoured to revive and keep the traditional art of weaving alive and turn Kota into an avant-garde style statement.

Her designs are renowned for the intricate karigari that goes into transforming the weave into a piece of art with embroidery, hand painting, motifs and zari.

Mrunal's Boutique, a pioneering force for fashion in Oman, will now showcase Vidhi's exclusive collection on Thursday, November 2, at Mrunal's Boutique, Qurm, from 10am to 8pm.

The location of the boutique can be found at www.mrunals-boutique.com or by calling 24567599.

